BRIEF NEWS NOTATION.

A. H. Boggess, jailer of Anderson county, is dead, aged 54.

The wife of Magistrate Joel Bayant died in Whitley from the effects of burns, aged 60.

Mrs. R. W. Lester, of Mercer, was horribly burned by her dress catching fire from a grate.

President Spencer offers a million a year and 10 per cent. on the earnings over $4,500,000 for the Cincinnati Southern.

John L. Howard confessed on his death bed that his mother arranged the conspiracy which resulted in the assassination of his father five years ago near Middlesboro.

The charred body of a woman was found in the ruins of a burnt cabin near Somerset and Milford Barclay is under arrest, the body being thought to be his wife and that he is responsible for her death.

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Williams, widow of G. A. Williams, who used to live on Rolling Fork, were interred in the Hustonville cemetery Sunday, after remarks at the grave by Rev. B. J. Pinkerton. Mrs. Williams lived at Lawrenceburg.

Col. Jack Chinn says the way to stop the cowardly practice of carrying concealed weapons is to make it a capital offense to fight within 24 hours after a quarrel. That would make them sleep on the proposition and there would be very few fights. He would also make it an offense punishable by 10 years in the penitentiary for any man to carry a concealed weapon or draw it in a public place. We have a law here against carrying concealed weapons, but it is not effective. In 99 cases out of 100, where a man is killed in a street fight here, it is nothing more than an assassination. One man has everything on his side and the other has nothing.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effective cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. ## SOME REASONS

WHY KENTUCKY HAS RETROGRADED

The disgraceful conditions growing out of political complications has centered on Kentucky just now, a dominant interest of the American press and the uncharitable and often malignant comments of metropolitan papers in some quarters emphasize that the bigotry, malevolence and persecution of sectional fanatics during the period of reconstruction, were but suspended when the factions joined in burying the bloody shirt in promotion of reconciliation and fraternity. Before the war recognition of Kentucky nativity or citizenship carried with it acknowledgment of the standard of American courage, chivalry and hospitality throughout civilization, and was an accepted passport commanding respect and admiration wherever presented. Patriarchs of this generation proudly recall the good old days when no star in the galaxy qualified her admiration of Kentucky's splendor. That she has degenerated will not be denied. Why? War and politicians account for prevailing demoralization and disgrace.

Half century ago Kentucky's escutcheon was comparatively spotless. The pioneer heritage of bravery, philanthropy and fraternity flourished in its entirety, pre-eminently in the mountainous and thinly settled districts. Today, the community of feeling and interests survives in some of the mountain corners and modern methods have not supplanted the primitive. An angel in disguise is recognized in every stranger who applies for entertainment and he is welcomed to a gratuitous share of best that basket, bed and board afford. Not to be included in invitations to a "working" is regarded significant of disfavor, and response to call for assistance is always made at sacrifice of interest or inclination. No interest or urgency but can be waived to attend the sick and assume the work of the disabled neighbor.

The bigotry and rancor of religion and politics rarely produce conflict. Not only was Kentucky a border State, her soldiers were nearly equally divided between the two armies and her mountains were scenes of many conflicts, much raiding and bushwhacking. The demoralization and license of such warfare developed latent viciousness of the rugged mountaineer and survivors recall with a shudder many of the brutal and revolting murders, which were committed in the name of civilized warfare. Comparative isolation and inaccessibility encouraged moonshining and fear of vengeance smothered any scruple which prompted a conscientious neighbor to betray a law-breaker.

The revenue officials and posse are ambushed and resisted as their deadliest enemies and betrayal for reward and revenge have provoked some of the bloody feuds.

A sportsman is authority for danger to a stranger traveling unaccompanied through the moonshining districts, and the cordiality and frankness of the residents when assured of the friendliness of the visitor. The life of an enemy is as lightly held as that of the game the native kills, and exposure to death in defense or support of a comrade in creditable or criminal cause is as unhesitatingly incurred as response to a neighbor's call for favor is made. Easily inflamed to reckless extravagance without reason or reward the unlettered backwoodsman never forgets a kindness nor is happier than in opportunity to reciprocate. Indeed, he is an anomaly, and merits commiseration more than censure in the excesses he is led to commit by mercenary and unscrupulous leaders on whom he relies with childlike confidence.

In olden times when election to office was an honor and an officer honored; when joint canvasses and discussions prevailed, the contestants manifesting a fraternal friendliness in their association, good nature and neighborly fellow-feeling characterized a canvass, and the masses measured the merits of the candidates and their claims.

The reprehensible custom of today—its denunciation, disingenuousness and villification—is productive of ill.

The patriot (?) now is rarely favored with an audience including more than a sprinkling of the opposition, and assurance of opportunity for unchallenged extravagance and mendacity encourages the indulgence.

The speaker usually relies upon abuse to enthrone his partisans, and bribes to secure the floaters. Political principles (?) are paramount to every other interest in campaigns for nomination, but only a mean to a selfish end, in reality, as demonstrated by the defeated aspirants.

The renunciation of life-long party affiliations by back number politicians, and enlistment with the enemy for hope or promise of crumbs, proclaim that consistency has no charms and the badge of renegade no shame for the repudiated beneficiaries from highest to lowest grade on the official scale. Kentucky furnishes as copious a list of political acrobats of one time destruct-tive as her most versatile sister. How the great have dwarfed! Shame! Shame! Whither have you fled? All that a candidate has will he give for office—or to defeat his rival—especially the political brother who won a nomination. Let us reform the methods and disinfect the standards of standard bearers. A DEMOCRAT.

NOBLE WORDS OF A GRAND MAN. "I will do my duty. If I fail, my death will be to the democratic party what the blowing up of the Maine was to Cuba—Gov. Goebel when warned that he would be assassinated. "Take charge and never give up."—Gov. Goebel to John K. Hendrick, a short time before death. "Tell my friends to be brave and fearless and loyal to the great common people."—Gov. Goebel when dying.

GOV. GOEBEL'S FUNERAL.

The principal oration was delivered by Senator Blackburn and it was worthy of the occasion and the man. It was eloquent in its eulogy of the dead statesman, burning in denunciation of the men who plotted his assassination and strong in appeal for the law to take its course and thus vindicate the teachings and example of the great leader. Closing he said:

"There is nothing now that we can do for him. No peans that we may sing can make his sleep more peaceful or profound. No eulogium that we can utter can penetrate the leaden ear of death. No monument that we can build can reach into that far off realm to which his heroic soul has gone. But we can cherish his memory, emulate his virtues and follow his example."

A BROTHER'S TRIBUTE.

The following tribute was paid by Justice Goebel, brother of the deceased governor:

My friends—In closing these last sad rites and before the mortal remains of the kindest, gentlest, most loving of sons and brothers be consigned to their final resting place, I want to say a last word.

Your friend, my brother, lies dead before you, murdered for his devotion to the cause of the people.

Should not Kentucky now and here swear by his blood that her sons will see justice done to those concerned in his foul taking off? If you fall in this then your laws are dead letters.

If he could speak he would say: "Let the law take its course." Will designing men of high station be permitted to use the ignorant outlaw to further their ambition, and when that ambition is disappointed, turn a red-handed murderer loose under the very roof of the executive mansion?

Shall the guilty in high place be uncovered? Shall the honor of your State be restored? Or shall his life blood spilt on your capital square, be dried up by the sun and washed away by the rains, and his life sacrifice be forgotten?

Measured by the highest standard of man, the grandest tribute possible to be paid him to whom you have been so loyal is to fight for the principles for which he laid down his life as he fought for them.

To you, sons of Kentucky, I submit these questions.

Brother, farewell, until we meet in that better world, where outlaws can not be hired, where crime is unknown, where rest comes.

Mother—brother—you have gone before—we shall join you.

Eld. Wm. Stanley said in part: We have come to lay the body of this grand tribune and commoner of the people by the side of Kentucky's most honored dead. How fittingly, for living he was the peer of any, dying, he was peerless. William Goebel was grand in his life, glorious in his death. With unspeakable chagrin and mortification, we remember that this man, who represented typically all that was noble and truest, and bravest and best, in and among a people whose proud boast was they always dared to face a foe and shield a friend, should have been stricken down by an assassin. It was necessary that there should have been a Judas e'er the world was redeemed by a Christ, and who shall say but that in the death of this noble man we can hold that which was vicarious? William Goebel dies, but freedom lives. Kentucky from this day marks an epoch in her history. We are a sadder and wiser and better people. We have learned a terrible lesson, but, oh my soul, we have learned it well, never to be forgotten.

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globe of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fog into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25 cents per box. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

The largest cargo of breadstuffs ever put afloat for the Orient, was cleared at Portland, Ore., in the Arab, which held the equivalent of 231,771 bushels of wheat, valued at $140,000.

LANCASTER.

The "Uncle Josh" company drew a large crowd on Thursday night, and everybody was delighted with the performance.

Messrs. Lewis West and Ben Herndon, two of our best qualified young men, have been awarded positions in the railway mail service. Lancaster now has five men in that important service, three others having been in it for a time.

The Williams Comedy Company, which will be at the opera house every night this week, will give a change of program each night, consisting of dramas, farces, comedies, new ideas, splendid specialties and the newest novelties at the very low prices of 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Mrs. T. M. Arnold is improving in health. Elder Joseph Ballou preached an able discourse to a large audience at the Christian church on Sunday. His subject was, "The Least Littlestness and the Greatest Greatness," the first being in those who break the commandments and the latter in those who become as little children, and not warriors, statesmen, or rulers.

The commander of the G. A. R., for Kentucky, will be in our city on Wednesday, 14th, to make a date and arrange for the meeting of that body of veterans here some time during the month of May. Our watch strings will be on the outside, a picnic will be given at Camp Dick Robinson, a well known spot to most of them, and a season of genuine enjoyment is anticipated.

Mrs. G. T. Farris has gone to Louisville to meet the Senator. She is such an uncompromising democrat that I am constrained to believe that George has learned to be one by association. Miss Lena Bruce has been the guest of Mrs. R. E. McRoberts. Miss Rena Mosher, the temperance lecturer, who has been with Mrs. G. M. Patterson, left for New Orleans on Saturday. W. A. Wallace has accepted a position with Reinach Ullman & Co., of Chicago.

Jailor David Ross received a letter from our representative, Wm. Ray, at Louisville, which has the right ring to it. He says that arresting legislators will be a difficult job, and he believes that the trouble will finally be settled in favor of the democrats, as it should be. Hon. R. H. Tomlinson suggests that Adjutant General Castleman organize his militia as it will have to be done anyway and it may be needed to enforce the orders of the courts.

The home talent minstrels, who were organized and instructed by the gifted and energetic Mrs. Harriet Glascock Hull, played to a $70 house on Friday. All the boys and girls played their parts well. William Embry looked better blacked than he does white, and Henry Simpson and Herbert Kinnaird improved their appearance by trying to look frightful. The gags and jokes were good and the piano music, by Miss Grace Kinnaird, was excellent.

It is believed that Judge Sauley's decision at Harrodsburg, requiring the county to keep up the roads through the town until they are paid for, will apply to our roads. Judge Burnside and Squire Myers are in favor of the county maintaining the streets on the grounds that the people of the town will pay a double tax, if they are required to keep up that part of the roads which runs into town, being about three miles. City Attorney Williams has been requested to take some steps to have the matter properly settled, and he will, of course, do anything in his power.

The political clouds seem to be rolling by and the reign of terror is less oppressive. Taylor's orders to send the troops home, call the bob-tail Legislature from London and to abide by the decisions of the courts are all admissions that he was wrong in calling out the troops and in ordering the Legislature to London. This is all that the democrats ask. Let the courts settle the matter. There was no necessity to call out the militia when only one man was shot. Why was it not called out a few days before when three men were killed and two wounded in the same town? The facts prove that it was done in the interest of republicans, and that no insurrection was threatened to make it legal. There are many here who are glad that the articles of agreement were not signed, as the democrats are now making no concessions and they are likely to get all they ask. Let them now make the fight in the courts and enforce their decisions by sheriff's posess instead of the military, which is the legal proceeding.

BEWARE MER FALL

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Penny's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - FEB. 13, 1900

W. F. WALTON.

AFTER going squarely back on the men he induced to make peace terms or him and on his word to Senator Blackburn, the miserable counterfeit of a man who disgraces the office he usurps, decided to send most of the soldiers home and issued a proclamation recalling the Legislature to Frankfort. But the legislators, who did not recognize his right to adjourn the body to London, and who were holding sessions in Louisville with quorums in both bodies, will pay no attention to his orders, and continue to meet in Louisville until every bayonet is withdrawn from the Capitol and there is proof that they will not be assassinated by mountain ruffians in the hire of republican leaders. This was done all in compliance with the recommendation of Gov. Beckham, who in a manly and temperate communication, advised the body of the failure of peace negotiations and of the present status of affairs. The sudden change in the plans of the usurper may have been caused, and doubtless was, by Gov. Beckham's assurance to the democratic members of the Legislature that they should not be arrested by the so-called officers of the rump Legislature at London, and Judge Barker's charge to the Louisville grand jury to have the sheriff of Louisville brought before them and instruct them that no member of the Legislature should be arrested by order of Taylor or anybody else to be taken to London or any other place. The entire course of the Butler county beast has been weak and vacillating, and he has seemed panic stricken ever since the assassination of Gov. Goebel, for which he appears to be directly responsible. The craven action in calling all the State troops around him, declaring that a state of insurrection existed, but which existed only in his fevered imagination, the idiotic and indefensible proclamation adjourning the Legislature to the little mountain hamlet of London, bayoneting the members when they tried to meet elsewhere in Frankfort than the Capitol and his pusillanimous action with reference to the peace settlement, all stamp him as a fool or a lunatic and utterly unfit for any public position, far less the chief executive of a great Commonwealth. He is a disgrace to his party, a disgrace to humanity and should be made to return to the vile earth from which he sprung, unwept, unhonored, but not unhung.

JUDGE BRECKINRIDGE, who is in Cincinnati seeing after the injunction case against the State election commissioners before the U. S. court, to restrain them from granting certificates of election for the minor State offices from attorney general down, said in an interview that Judge Taft assured him that he would give the defendants ample time to consider the document, and that it was a trick of Bradley to get a temporary injunction against them. Should Taft issue a restraining order the case will be taken to the supreme court which will be asked for an immediate decision. Gov. Bradley and his partners in sin claim that the provisions of the constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State a republican form of government and prohibits the taking of a man's property without due process of law have been or are about to be violated. Lawyers tell us that both of these assumptions are violent and that they believe Taft to be too much of a jurist to grant them.

THE pusillanimous usurper at Frankfort showed his little courage on Friday and went to the executive mansion for the first time since he had Gov. Goebel assassinated, but he did so under a guard of 25 soldiers. Cursed be such a coward. Nobody is going to harm him. Democrats do not assassinate. That is the sole prerogative of the republicans.

OVER 200 republicans rushed to Frankfort to keep Taylor from signing an agreement, which his friends proposed and which he had honor bound himself to sign. There is said to be honor, even among thieves. There is none between assassins it seems.

THE Somerset Paragon says that the editor of this paper did not stay long in Frankfort after the State guards began to gather. That's always our way. We can't stand pressure. In fact it is told of us that we once hid in a cellar to avoid a conflict.

LONDON is no longer the Capital of Kentucky, even in Taylor's frightened dreams. Louisville is at present and ought to be made the permanent Capital. Too many foul conspiracies grow and fester in the little city under the hill.

SENATOR HARRIS has been suggested as a candidate for lieutenant governor on the democratic ticket. Louisville Post. And Why Face Dick will doubtless be the republican candidate for keeper of the back capitol.

THE London Legislature blowout will go down the corridors of fame as the most roaring farce of the 19th century. Sent thither by a fool with a buck, the little jack-a-napes who gathered there, did very much like the monkey that climbs the tree. Pretending to deplore the assassination of Gov. Goebel, they pass resolutions to that effect and adjourn to a turkey shooting. So Pharisaically good they could not meet without prayer, even pressing "Clerk" Dyche into service to repeat the Lord's prayer, when no preacher was present, the members repeating it after him, they desecrate the Lord's day next day by "excurting" in a body to Cumberland Gap. A lot of sweet scented scrubs indeed are most of the republican members of the present General Assembly.

THE wicked flee when no man pursueth. Afraid even to go from the executive office to the executive mansion for fear that his cowardly carcass would be perforated with cold lead, Taylor finally ventured down to see his wife Saturday, under a heavy escort of soldiers and spent the first night with her for two or three weeks. It was a night of alarm, however, and it is safe to say no sleep came to his eyes. To add to his fears somebody fired several shots near the building he was in and the poor fellow thought his time had come. It was only a practical joke, but it came near scaring Taylor to death.

AFTER ordering the troops to return home, Taylor took another buckage and decided to retain the Lexington Somerset, Morgantown, Covington, Newport and Maysville companies. The gaudy guns had been loaded on the cars but he ordered them unloaded and taken where they could be used if some playful democrat should say "boo" to him.

THE editorials in the Atlanta Constitution, for copies of which we are indebted to Mr. T. R. Walton, have been the fairest, strongest and best on the Kentucky situation that have appeared in any outside paper, and show a knowledge and appreciation of the conditions, which a majority of the leading dailies seem to be ignorant of.

JUDGE TAFT

To Decide on Jurisdiction Tomorrow.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 13, 9:20 A. M.—Judge Taft took case under advisement. Will render decision on question of jurisdiction Wednesday at 2 o'clock. Other matters in statu quo.

THE FEDERAL COURT AND THE LEGISLATURE.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 12.—Promptly at 2 P. M., Gov. Bradley began his argument before U. S. Judge Taft for an injunction against the Kentucky election commissioners, to restrain them from ousting the minor State officers. He argued especially against the validity of the Goebel election law and tried to show that the Federal court has jurisdiction.

Besides Bradley, Wilson, Sweeney, Mackoy and others appear for the plaintiffs, and Scott, Hager, Pryor and others for the defendants.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 12.—The Legislature with 57 members in the House and a quorum in the Senate got down to business today and passed several important bills.

FRANKFORT, Feb. 12.—The rump Legislature met at noon, but did nothing beyond letting Taylor know that they had obeyed him like good little boys.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

On motion of Judge Pryor before Judge Cantrill at Georgetown the injunction suit against Taylor was passed till today.

The splendid action of the democrats, the superb self-restraint which they were able to employ, make one proud to be a democrat.—Cynthiana Democrat.

Judge Saylor, a noted Cincinnati lawyer, says Taylor has wantonly violated the law in Kentucky, and if he pursues his policy, he ought to be sent to the penitentiary.

As "the blood of the martyrs was the seed of the church," so will the blood of William Goebel cement and unify the democratic party, not only in Kentucky, but throughout the nation.—Owenton Herald.

Lee Jones, a Whitley county intimidator, was arrested at Frankfort as a suspect. He slept in the executive office, but says he did not kill Goebel. Whittaker, he says, can tell all about it. He also says if the police want to know about the conspiracy and the man who planned it they must see a prominent republican, whom he named, but whose name is not given out.

A bill was introduced in each house of the General Assembly in Louisville yesterday appropriating $100,000 to be used for the detection of the assassins of Gov. Goebel and their accomplices. The bill creates a commission of three prominent citizens to supervise the expenditure of the fund. This makes Taylor quake in his boots more than ever.

Granville Philpot, of Clay county said, "Though I am a republican, Mr. Goebel and I were splendid friends, and I am mighty sorry that he got killed."

If they find out who killed him there ought not to be any quibbling about what to do with the 'skunk' who did the shooting, or those who put him up to it. They ought to kill them in the way that would hurt the most. They ought to fix the assassin so he would be just as long about dying as Mr. Goebel was. It's all right to shoot a man when he has done you a personal wrong, but when it comes to shoot him behind his back just because he is against you in politics; that ain't right."

John B. Castleman says fully 20,000 men have volunteered for membership in his militia. He declares he will make no move until after the present political disturbance has been settled. It is a fact, however, that in Louisville there are eight companies volunteered and pledged to his support. It is said on official authority that a fire bell signal has been agreed upon if any attempt is made to arrest the democratic Legislature and that Gen. Castleman's regiment as well as the police would respond to it.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

R. W. Thompson, secretary of the navy under Hayes, died at Terre Haute, Ind.

Senator Jones, of Arkansas, has introduced a free silver coinage bill as a substitute for the pending currency bill.

Mr. Bryan was welcomed by a big crowd at Richmond, where he spoke on invitation from the Virginia Legislature.

Brutus J. Clay, of Kentucky, was named by the president as one of the United States commissioners for the Paris exposition.

Maj. Willis L. Ringo, former secretary of State of Kentucky, died at St. Petersburg, Florida. He was an ex-Confederate and 56 years of age.

Representative Gilbert introduced a bill to pay the heirs of G. U. Rogers, of Madison county, $600 for supplies furnished the Federal army during the civil war.

Harry Bacon, formerly editor of the Nelson County Record, and W. S. Park, of Louisville, will soon begin the publication of a democratic paper at Elizabethtown—something needed.

Yesterday was Lincoln's birthday, when he would have been 91 years of age, had not an assassin cut his career off in the midst of its usefulness and had he escaped the other ills of life.

Whallen's Phwat Hardin declines to be interviewed on any subject whatever. Maybe his great mind is meditating on how to save the democratic party some more by sheltering it in the maw of the L. & N.—Spencer Courier.

The election committee of the House unanimously decided in favor of Representative Boreing retaining his seat in the contest brought against him by John D. White. The committee also refused permission for Mr. White to address the House in his own behalf.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

The annual State christian endeavor convention will be held at Versailles, May 11-13.

Rev. S. P. Forgy, a prominent Baptist preacher of Pembroke, is dead, aged 73. He was the father of Hon. S. Walton Forgy, who married Miss Lizzie Twidwell, of Hustonville.

Rev. Dr. Henry McDonald, for 18 years pastor of the Second Baptist church of Atlanta, resigned his charge and retired from active ministrations. He was at one time stationed in Danville.

G. S. Shelby sold to Johnson, of Boyle, 134 hogs at 44c and to Stigall Bros. 57 long yearling cattle at 5c.

At Stigall's sale near Preachersville, corn brought $2.46, sheep $4.50 to $5.20 cows $25 to $38, yearling heifers $20.

A Montgomery man who purchased 18 yearling mules in November at $11 to $20 sold them this week at $35 to $40.

F. P. Bishop bought of Mark Hardin a lot of hogs at 34 to 36c and sold to Johnson, of Boyle, some heavy hogs at 4c.

R. L. Smith and Conrad Hiatt, of Rockcastle, sold a bunch of two-year-olds here yesterday at $20 and some yearlings at $17.

M. J. Farris, of Danville, bought of J. E. Lynn a bunch of 900-pound cattle at 5c and of John Siler a bunch of 800-pounders at same.

The wheat crop in this section was never more promising. Harvesting machine men are all hustling for early orders, securing some at the advanced price.—Paris News.

J. M. Roberts sold to E. P. Woods four mixed cattle at 4c, to O. T. Layton some heifers at 34c and to other parties a bunch of yearlings at $20 and second grade heifers at $11.25.

J. M. VanMeter sold to Col. Underwood, of Lincoln, one Shorthorn bull calf, aged eight months, for $125. Mr. VanMeter says that is the highest price he has obtained for a Shorthorn calf in 20 years.—Advocate.

A ewe costing about $4 will shear 44 to 5 pounds of wool worth a dollar and will rear a lamb worth $5, at present prices. This shows that the farmer with a lot of sheep is "right in it."—Winchester Democrat.

A big crowd attended court yesterday and there were between 300 and 400 cattle on the market. Choice yearlings and two-year-olds brought 5c, but 44 to 46c were the ruling prices. Heifers were dull at 3 to 3.40 and butcher stuff was in demand at 3 to 3.4c. A few mules changed hands at $50 to $100, but mules of all kinds were very slow.

The fruit raisers hereabouts agree that as yet this winter that none of the fruit trees or shrubbery has been injured. Mrs. B. A. Smith sold to James M. Rihn 80 of her full blood Langshan hens. They weighed 522 pounds, an average of 6 1/2 pounds, and were so exceedingly fine that they brought a cent a pound above the market.—Elizabethtown News.

"THE LAND OF THE SKY" COUNTRY.

The mountain section of Western North Carolina, where the Southern Railway crosses the Allegheny Mountains, is one of the most beautiful countries on earth, with climatic advantages second to none. This country is known as "THE LAND OF THE SKY," and in this "Land of the Sky" are situated the attractive Resorts of Asheville, Hot Springs, Tryon, Black Mountain, etc. At these points, as well as many others, there are superior hotel accommodations and visitors to this wonderful country find it at all seasons of the year most advantageous.

Adjacent to "The Land of the Sky" is what is known as "The Sapphire Country," which is reached by the Southern Railway via Asheville, Hendersonville, N. C., to Brevard, N. C., thence by stage through a wonderfully interesting country. The Sapphire Inn, on Sapphire Lake, furnishes good accommodations, and Fairfield Inn, on Fairfield Lake, is a large hotel, just completed and being extensively patronized by visitors from all over the United States.

The average altitude of the Sapphire Country is 3,000 feet above the Sea level. This country is most attractive, not only as a Summer, but also as a Winter and Spring Resort.

DAMNED THE RIVER.—Silas Anderson was tried before Judge Bailey and a jury Saturday for building a stone fence in Dix River near Lackey's ford, causing the water to back up and make the ford too deep for passage. He was fined $5 and costs and ordered to remove the fence at once or be subject to further prosecution. The old man thinks that things have come to a hell of a pass when a man can't dam a river or any other thing he wants to.

IN justice to Dr. Eaton, of the Baptist Recorder, we reproduce a portion of his card published in the last issue of his paper, which we failed to see in a cursory glance at the editorial page, nor until our attention was called to it. He says: "In answer to the many inquiries, I wish simply to say, that I did not say what is charged, nor did I make anything in the neighborhood of such a remark. I did say I was sorry Mr. Goebel was shot and I condemned the dastardly crime of the assassin in severe terms; but I did not say that I wanted to see him hanged. That charge is a gross misrepresentation." The reverend brother is hardly as emphatic or as indignant as he might be under such a serious charge.

A VISIT TO CASEY.

Each trip to the good "State of Casey" impresses me but the more thoroughly of the cleverness and hospitality of her citizens and I scarcely ever let an opportunity slip to mingle with her people. I had an opportunity Friday and as usual I am glad I took advantage of it. Although the county is torn up from center to circumference because of the fearful state of affairs at Frankfort, people were not too much wrought up to "listen to my tale of woe" about job printing, subscriptions, money and the like. As is always the case, they treated me well and patronized me as liberally as I could have asked.

A night spent with my old friend, Willis T. Coulter, at Middleburg, was one of the most enjoyable features of my trip. A gentleman of the old school, a democrat in whom there is no guile and hospitable to a fault, he made the night so pleasant that I had trouble in getting my consent to leave this happy "old Kentucky home." His wife, who was a daughter of Mr. Harve McAninch, is as kind and thoughtful as he is, while their children do their part to make it pleasant for those who come.

Middleburg is not booming, I am sorry to say. One store has been closed since my last visit and now G. S. Durham & Co. and George R. Jeter have the thing all to themselves. Both seem to be prospering, however, and deserve the good trade they are getting.

James W. McWhorter, one of the noblest of democrats, expressed his willingness to shoulder his gun and help straighten things out at Frankfort. He has passed the three score mark, but there is still fight in him for the cause of right.

The little Venice—Yosemite—was almost under water but I heard no cry of dull times. Coulter & Kelsay, Jason Coffey, Mrs. Lawhorn and Miss Helen Sharp were all busy waiting on the trade and all wore a look of contentment.

Miss Helen Sharp, postmaster at Yosemite, is the busiest lady in Casey. In fact she does more work than the average man and does it better. Besides attending to her duties as postmaster, she conducts a general merchandise store and in season runs a flourishing millinery, doing her own trimming. She has no clerk or assistance of any kind.

"Green River has been on a fearful tear and Middleburg and Yosemite people were deprived of their mail two days last week. The river was not fordable and Uncle Sam accepts the excuse and the citizens have to do so. What a pity either the pike company or the county one does not build bridges. Twenty-four hours after the rain of Thursday, I was unable to ford at Yosemite and had to walk over on a so-called suspension bridge for footmen. Forty hours later I forded at Liberty and water was almost up to the seat of the buggy. I merely mention this to show what inconvenience the good people of the county suffer by a failure to provide bridges.

Liberty is still improving. Smoke and hum from the planing mill can be seen and heard for miles, a roller mill is talked of and a number of houses are under construction. The "capital" has certainly taken a new lease of life and is not grown by a long shot.

The Commercial Bank, one of the best in the State, will move this week into its elegant new brick building, and the room now occupied will be taken by J. Ginsburg, of Stanford, who will sell "sheep clodders."

Attorneys J. Boyle and George E. Stone are in Nebraska seeing after the $75,000 estate left to Miss Onte Whittle, who lives at the toll-gate on the Middleburg pike. There seems to be no doubt about their being able to bring a good bulk of the money back. Miss Whittle is 65 years old, but not too old to take care of the money.

The Whipples have greatly improved the interior of the Napier Hotel and are running it in style. They are setting a good table and are doing a good business, as is W. D. Staggs, mine host of the Exchange Hotel.

Two Casey democrats contributed to the fund to defend Messrs. Hubble, Alverson and Embury in the U. S. court. They are W. M. Myers and R. L. Murphy; good men and true blues in the cause of democracy.

"If you will let up on Taylor, I'll take your paper," said a Casey county republican. No trade was made.

Eld. J. Q. Montgomery has brought his aged mother from Adair county to live with him. She has been ill for a long time and was barely able to make the trip.

Liberty has the prettiest baker shop in the country and one of the cleverest and best bakers. He is George I. N. Gillock. Try him.

The Masonic lodge has just received new furniture, regalia, etc., and its interior is a beauty. The lodge is a comparatively new one, but is said to be in fine working order.

Dink Wilkinson will have a sale near Phil Thursday and will quit farming for a while and devote his entire time to trading. He is undecided as to where he will live, but either Dunnville or Liberty will catch the clever gentleman. E. C. W.

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

The Boer government has officially received U. S. Consul Hay.

Five prisoners, all house-breakers, made their escape from the Louisville jail.

The mercury has been as low as 75 below zero at Dawson, Alaska, this winter.

W. C. Offutt, a brother of Mrs. W.
B. Haldeman, died at her home in Louisville.

Will Golson, a desperado, was hanged at Birmingham, Ala., for killing a deputy sheriff.

The electrical equipment department at the Brooklyn navy yard was destroyed by fire Sunday. Loss $100,000.

Louis O'Shaughnessy, the well-known journalist, who married Miss Bondurant of Louisville, died in Boston.

In a wreck on the C. & N. in Michigan nine persons were killed, three missing, five seriously and four slightly injured.

Roland B. Molinex was found guilty of murder in the first degree by poisoning Katherine J. Adams at New York by confections sent through the mails.

At Port Arthur, Tex., Jas. Sweeney, a white man, was lynched by a mob for the alleged murder of a fellow-workman, of which he had been acquitted after a formal court trial.

A dispatch from Buenos Ayres states that on last Sunday there were 219 sun-strokes in that city, and that of this great number 134 were fatal. The mercury registered 129 in the shade.

Near Clarksville, Tenn., James Gordon, a colored cook, cut Mrs. George Rawlings' throat from ear to ear with a tobacco knife. The husband returned about the time the murderer made the fatal thrust, saw what had occurred and seized his shotgun, firing at the Negro as he ran and blew his brains out.

Mrs. John R. Rogers, whose death at the Maternity Hospital, in Cincinnati, followed by that of her baby, prematurely born, will be buried by John Mecham, a Cincinnati carpenter, with whom she eloped, at his family lot.
Her husband, John R. Rogers, refused to accept the body.

MIDDLEBURG.

W. T. Durham and Zack Delk returned from Coopersville, Wayne county, Sunday. John Staton went to Park-ville last week to see his best girl. Mr.
Staton says our old friend, J. B. Alnut, is "bitching," but is talking of marrying soon.

The outrage at the State Capital is still the only topic among democrats.
Republicans are still profoundly silent on the subject. I believe that the better element of them are feeling badly over it and would give anything reasonable if they had never heard of Bill Taylor, but I am persuaded that there are some who are so depraved as to rejoice over the murder of Gov. Goebel.
Republicans could not buy or bluff
Gov. Goebel, hence they murdered him.
Republicans will have one consolation next fall. If they can not beat Bryan they can murder him. It is a wonder Bill Taylor did not have the militia interfere and stop Gov. Goebel's funeral. Of the man-ny black spots on the record of the republican party the murder of Gov. Goebel is the blackest.
If Bill Taylor will take his blood stained garments and sneak off to some secluded spot, where no human being is ever likely to go and do the Judas Iscaariot act, he will partially satisfy all the outraged people. If Bill Taylor does not evacuate the premises soon we are preparing to go to Frankfort and smoke him out. I have smoked out many a skunk.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable.
For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous system of the system. They offer $100 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

The "Stonewall Brigade" will be represented at the Louisville Confederate Reunion May 30-June 3, by soldiers from the 2d, 4th, 5th, 27th and 33d regiments Virginia Infantry and Pendleton Battery.

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on Penny, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50 cents and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

"I think I would go crazy with pain were it not for Chamberlain's Pain Balm," writes Mr. W. H. Stapleton, Herminie, Pa. "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for several years and have tried remedies without number, but Pain Balm is the best medicine I have got hold of." One application relieves the pain. For sale by Craig & Hoeker.
